May You Be The Mother of a Hundred Sons: A Journey Among the Women of India

1991, PAPER, 220 PAGES, $13.95

A wonderfully-written, fascinating portrayal of Indian women from Indira Gandhi to movie stars and prostitutes. It's an insightful portrait of the country as seen through the eyes of its women. (Item no. IDA37)

Eric Margolis

War at the Top of the World, The Struggle for Afghanistan, Kashmir, and Tibet

2002, PAPER, 288 PAGES, $20.95

An overview of geography, religion and politics of the High Himalayas, and its strategic value to Pakistan, India and China. Updated throughout in this second edition, with a new chapter on the Taliban. (Item no. PKN09)

Diana L. Eck

Darsan, Seeing the Divine Image in India

1998, PAPER, 97 PAGES, $19.50

A fascinating and rigorous guide to deciphering Hindu symbolism, this scholarly book will help you understand and appreciate religious art in India. Despite its scholarly paraphernalia and language, the book is extremely useful for the traveler. (Item no. IDA75)

George Michell

Hindu Art and Architecture

2000, PAPER, 224 PAGES, $16.95

An excellent survey of Hindu art and architecture, explaining the meaning and construction of principal images and buildings, as well as the development of Hinduism and the corpus of myths that have influenced its artistic tradition. (Item no. IDA147)

Roy C. Craven

Indian Art, A Concise History

1997, PAPER, 256 PAGES, $16.95

George Michell, Antonio Martinelli

The Royal Palaces of India

1999, PAPER, 232 PAGES, $39.95

An architectural survey of Hindu and Muslim fortresses and royal residences from the 12th century to the days of British colonial rule -- well-informed, comprehensive and handsomely illustrated with 250 color photographs. (Item no. IDA74)

Mohandas K. Gandhi

An Autobiography, Or the Story of My Experiments With Truth

1995, PAPER, 480 PAGES, $10.95

There is no substitute for reading Gandhi in his own, simple, direct prose. A highly recommended glimpse into the personal life of this remarkable figure. (Item no. IDA163)

Mark Shand

River Dog, A Journey Down the Brahmaputra

2005, PAPER, 338 PAGES, $16.95

Shand's touching, eloquent and entertaining chronicle of a journey from Tibet to the Bay of Bengal on the mighty Brahmaputra -- in the company of his Indian hunting dog Bhaiti. (Item no. IDA256)

Eric Newby

Slowly Down the Ganges

1998, PAPER, 384 PAGES, $14.95

In 1963, the author and his wife set out on a 1,200-mile voyage down the Ganges River. The title could apply as easily to the ruminative attitude Newby takes towards his journey as to the many mishaps which bedevil the quest. (Item no. IDA179)

William Dalrymple

The Age of Kali, Indian Travels and Encounters

2000, PAPER, 392 PAGES, $14.95

A journalist stationed in Delhi, Dalrymple recounts his travels and interviews over the past decade, including memorable encounters with Tamil tigers, Benazir Bhutto and Imran Khan. Humorous, insightful and well-informed. (Item no. IDA152)

Nirad C. Chaudhuri

The Autobiography of an Unknown Indian

2001, PAPER, 560 PAGES, $16.95

One of the great works of modern Indian literature, reissued in 2001. It's at once the story of Chaudhuri's youth in rural Bengal and Calcutta and the story of modern India's origins; a masterpiece steeped in time and place. (Item no. IDA196)

Salman Rushdie, Elizabeth West

Mirrorwork, 50 Years of Indian Writing 1947-1997

1997, PAPER, 554 PAGES, $15.00

Rohinton Mistry

A Fine Balance

1997, PAPER, 624 PAGES, $15.95

Set in Indira Gandhi's "emergency Raj" of 1975 in an unnamed Indian "city by the sea," which bears a striking resemblance to Bombay, this tender novel follows the intermingled fortunes of a Parsi widow, her boarder and two tailors. (Item no. IDA92)

Amit Chaudhuri

Freedom Song

2000, PAPER, 448 PAGES, $14.00

This three-novella volume contains Chaudhuri's finest work to date -- in particular "A Strange and Sublime Address," his evocation of childhood in Calcutta. (Item no. IDA217)

Rudyard Kipling

Kim

1992, PAPER, 365 PAGES, $7.00

For the sheer pleasure of its prose, insight into the British in India and its extraordinary sense of place, you can't do better than Kipling's classic novel about a boy who travels the Grand Trunk Road with the Dalai Lama. (Item no. IDA65)

Salman Rushdie

Midnight's Children

1980, PAPER, 533 PAGES, $15.00

The novel that launched Salman Rushdie's career. The title refers to those born at the stroke of India's independence on August 15, 1947; the book is an imaginative and magical story of one of those children. (Item no. IDA12)

Amitav Ghosh

The Hungry Tide

2005, PAPER, 333 PAGES, $13.95
